

Sharp Shooters

THIS year's "This Is Our Army" photo feature was a success because of the great photos submitted to us from photographers in the field. The following two pages showcase some of the photos submitted for that issue but not printed because of lack of space.

Once again, I thank all the photographers who took time to submit their images telling the Army story. I encourage you to visit our web site at www.soldiersmagazine.com and read our "Guide to Writing and Shooting for Soldiers Magazine" to help you continue telling our story. Remember — this is your magazine.
